What are we going to get out of life. This can understandably be a question of Fundamental importance to us. We begin with certain basic needs and deasires. It is important to have a comfortable home plenty of food, a meaningful and well-paying job comfort companionship, and joy. However many of us have not fuly realized a simple, basic principle: For our recieving to take place, we must first give. Giving and receiving are two aspects of the same law of life.

Quick Review

- A lot of you did not do a great job on your assessment on Friday, so let's start by asking questions? Who has them? Think about what confused you.

ANSWERING MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS

STEP

BY

1

READ THE QUESTION BEFORE YOU LOOK AT THE ANSWERS.

2

THINK OF YOUR ANSWER BEFORE LOOKING AT POSSIBLE ANSWERS.

#3

READ ALL OF THE CHOICES.

~~X~~ B ~~X~~ D

4

ELIMINATE ANSWERS YOU KNOW AREN'T RIGHT.

5

ALWAYS TAKE AN EDUCATED GUESS AND SELECT AN ANSWER.

6

GO WITH YOUR GUT—DON'T CHANGE YOUR MIND.

Skills Notes: Multiple-Choice Test Taking Strategies

- Read the question and formulate your answer before you look at your options.
- Immediately eliminate obvious wrong answers.
- More than likely two answers will seem correct—pay close attention to the wording to determine the best choice.
- If you notice yourself spending too much time (longer than one minute) on a question, skip it to return to it later. The test blends easy, medium, and difficult questions, so this technique may help you get to easier questions. It will also help you get to questions that may not require you to re-read parts of the passage.
- Remember: questions that ask you to look at a specific line, especially antecedent questions, may require you to look at lines above and below where indicated.
- Make sure to put an answer for every question, even if you have to guess! If you find yourself running out of time, bubble in a selected letter (like “C”) for every single remaining question.

Let's Try That Again...

---

- Clear your desks completely except for one writing utensil—preferably a pencil—and one clean sheet of paper. You'll need the paper to write your CCC.
- Write your name, class period, and date in the space provided at the top of the provided answer sheet.
- If you have a question as you work...ASK...don't wonder.

Once you finish the multiple choice questions...

---

- Turn your answer sheet in at the teacher's desk and IMMEDIATELY return to your seat.
- Return to your seat and correctly head your paper using MLA format.
- Respond to the following prompt: What does Thoreau mean when he says "better government"?
  - Use CCC format (you may have to paraphrase rather than quote the text).
  - Consider what problems Thoreau raises about the current government and what he wants the citizens to do to better the government.
- Proofread and edit your paper then turn it in IMMEDIATELY upon completion...then sit in silence or suffer my wrath!
