Dedicated on October 28, 1886, the Statue of Liberty was a gift of friendship from the people of France. It is located on Liberty Island in New York harbor, the statue stands as a symbol of freedom. Inside the statue's base is a plaque engraved with the words, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free..." More than 120 tons of steel was used to build the statue, which were restored for its 100th birthday celebration.
